

November is the month in the Roman Catholic Church that we remember those who have died. It is a time of celebrating their lives and praying for their souls.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Parish will remember in a special way, those in our parish family, who died from Oct.15, 2018 through Oct. 15, 2019.

The names of those who died this past year will be read aloud at all the masses on November 2 and November 3, 2019. We ask that one family member or friend come forward to light a candle for their loved one, when the name is read.

If someone from your family died since last October, but was not buried from SFXC churches, please give us their name and date of death in writing with your name by October 27th (See below). You may put the information in the collection basket or call the office. They will be included in our remembrance.

We also have a Book of Life, which will be placed on the altar during November Masses. You are asked to write the names of all your deceased relatives and friends in this book which will be located each week at the main entrance of the church.

It is a loving and respectful tribute that we are asked to carry out in memory of the dead.
